Meet Our Chefs!

Born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Mark Morgan (pictured right) has been in the restaurant industry since he was 12 years old. Working at an authentic Italian restaurant, Mark developed his passion for cooking, motivating him to save money to study at the Culinary Institute of America (CIA) in New York. Fresh out of CIA, Mark opened the Westin Bonaventure Hotel in Ft. Lauderdale, a luxurious hotel where celebrities come to relax and play. He spent the next several years perfecting his skills in Chicago, New York, and Washington, D.C., before settling in Pasadena. For 20 years, he was owner/operator of Windows on the Bay, where he hosted over 100 weddings a year. At the age of 15, James Hall (pictured left) started working for Mark Morgan as a dishwasher at Windows on the Bay. It wasn't too long after working in one of Pasadena's most popular restaurant, that James realized that he had a passion for cooking and wanted to become a chef! Mark quickly noticed his talent, and encouraged James into attending the CIA as well. Now the '00 graduate who was once a dishwasher, is now part owner/executive chef of his hometown's most thriving restaurant! Mark's and James' idea of the perfect meal is a big New York strip with a grilled lobster and a nice bottle of Italian red wine, shared with their friends and family.
